25X1 FROM: [REDACTED]
Director, Intelligence Community Staff

SUBJECT: DCI's Annual Report to the Congress

25X1 1. Attached for your approval is the final draft of your Annual Report to the Congress for 1988. The Report was developed from material provided by various Community organizations and has been reviewed by the contributors. [REDACTED]

25X1 2. The format of this year's report differs slightly from the past few submissions, combining a review of the year's significant events with examples of how intelligence responded to, or anticipated, those events. The Report shows the relationship of intelligence to geopolitical and economic developments, foreign policy objectives, and operational crises, and gives the Congress a sense of the requirements and tasks that confronted the Intelligence Community during the year. It concludes with a look at the future, noting the increased importance of intelligence in an era of declining resources. [REDACTED]

25X1 3. We will incorporate any comments you may have on the draft, and then proceed with publication. ~~We are also forwarding to you for signature transmittal letters to convey the Report to the President, Vice-President, and appropriate Congressional Committees.~~ [REDACTED]
